

FACTS ABOUT POLICE WITHHELD BY HYLAN

Mayor Refuses to Give Information Concerning Work of Men in Department.

Giving as an excuse his displeasure over an editorial in this newspaper, Mayor Hylan has flatly refused a request of The Evening World for information concerning the detail of men in the Police Department. This request was made over a week ago. At that time the Mayor indicated that he would grant it. He suggested that a questionnaire be prepared.

The reporter who went to the Mayor frankly told him that Police Commissioner Enright and other police officials had refused to give the information sought by The Evening World. The appeal was made to him, it was explained, because it was felt that the public was entitled to know just what disposition was being made of the 11,000 men in the Police Department, who cost the taxpayers over $30,000,000 a year.

It was solely for the purpose of learning just how much truth, if any, there was in these reports that The Evening World submitted the list of questions to the Mayor. It wanted to know how many members of the department are doing patrol duty, how many are assigned to traffic squads, automobile squads, special duty and plainclothes work; how many were on night shifts and day shifts, and the number assigned to police stations, Headquarters and other work outside the regular routine. These figures, compared with those of former years, would show whether red, loud changes have been made in the apportionment of men. It would likewise prove either the truth or falsity of charges that political favorites are holding down sinecures.

SAILORS FIGHT POLICEMAN.

Navy Men Object to Arrest of Cafe Manager and Waiter.

Two officers of the Naval Intelligence Department visited Erickson's Cafe last night at Bay 43d Street and Harway Avenue, Bath Beach, on complaints that liquor was served there to United States sailors in uniform.

There were thirty-five sailors in the rear room when the Intelligence officers ordered beer and whiskey. When the order is alleged to have been filled by Richard Kane, twenty-four, of No. 20 Hubbard Street, a waiter, Detective Crimmons and Fitzsimmons entered with Bath Beach policemen. Kane and Manager Joseph Mangan, thirty-seven, of No. 144 Dean Street, Brooklyn, were arrested.

The sailors fought the policemen for fifteen minutes before Kane and Mangan were placed in a patrol wagon.

"There—it looks just like new"

It's so easy to keep it that way, with Tintex. Every time I wash a waist, I dissolve a teaspoonful of Tintex in the warm rinse water and use it instead of bluing. Of course, I always wash my waist thoroughly in soap-suds first—it's perfectly ruinous to rub a cake soap on a delicate fabric like this.

Tintex comes in all the season's smartest shades, at 10c a box. It's a tint for silks, wash-satin, crepe, net and even wool. Use it just like bluing—tint your garment as you rinse it.
